

THE ALASKA STATE COMMISSION FOR HUMAN RIGHTS
Presents a Workshop on

ALASKA'S ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAWS: RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

What you need to know about preventing and recognizing discrimination.

This informative training will provide an understanding of The Alaska Human Rights Law with a focus on prevention and solutions. This training will benefit business owners, employees, human resource directors, personnel managers, and everyone interested in learning more about anti-discrimination laws.

- Presented by: Stephen Koteff, Chief of Enforcement
Robert Eddy, Investigations Director
Alaska State Commission for Human Rights
- Location: Aurora Inn & Suites
302 E. Front Street
Nome, Alaska 99762
- Date/Time: Wednesday, June 25th
9:00 A.M. – 12:00 P.M.
- Registration: While there is no charge for the workshop, seating is limited.
Please contact Brooke Groh to register.
1-800-478-4692, extension 240

For additional information, interpreter services, or other accommodations, please call 1-800-478-4692, extension 240, TTY/TDD 1-800-478-3177.